

ISU European Figure Skating Championships 2023

Espoo (FIN) 23.-29.01.2023		Women	Men	Pairs	Ice Dance
number of available entries	2	1	1	1	1
Swiss Ice Skating goals	1x Top 6 / 1x Top 12	1x Top 12	1x Top 12	1x Top 12	1x Top 20
1) Athletes eligible for selection	National Team +19 / U19		National Team Elite		Team Ice Dance (Senior)
2) Minimum Total Element Scores (ISU)	Athletes to be considered for the ISU European Figure Skating Championships 2023 must have obtained the Minimum Total Element Scores required by the ISU by December 18, 2022 (ISU Communication #2500).
3) International competitions to be considered for the selection, Season 2022/2023*	ISU GP Series / ISU GP Finale, ISU Challenger Series, and Swiss Elite Championships 2023			All ISU Senior Competitions before December 18, 2022 and Swiss Elite Championships 2023
4) Selection process*	Athletes with the highest Total Competition Score (addition of the two highest Total Competition Scores obtained in considered competitions – please see line item 3) will be recommended to Swiss Ice Skating for nomination for both slots. Athletes must be among the medal winners at the Swiss Elite Championships 2023. The athletes with the third resp. fourth highest Total Competition Score (addition of the two highest Total Competition Scores obtained in considered competitions – please see line item 3) will be recommended for nomination as substitutes. Athletes must be ranked at the Swiss Elite Championships 2023 among the top 5 (final standing).	The athlete with the highest Total Competition Score (addition of the two highest Total Competition Scores obtained in considered competitions – please see line item 3) will be recommended to Swiss Ice Skating for nomination. The athlete must be placed either in first or second place at the Swiss Elite Championships 2023). The athlete with the second highest Total Competition Score (addition of the two highest Total Competition Scores obtained in considered competitions – please see line item 3) will be recommended to Swiss Ice Skating for substitute. The athlete must be among the medal winners at the Swiss Elite Championships 2023).		The ice dance couple with the highest Total Competition Score (addition of the two highest Total Competition Scores obtained in considered competitions – please see line item 3) will be recommended to Swiss Ice Skating for nomination. The ice dance couple must be placed either in first or second place at the Swiss Elite Championships 2023. The ice dance couple with the second highest Total Competition Score (addition of the two highest Total Competition Scores obtained in considered competitions – please see line item 3) will be recommended to Swiss Ice Skating as substitute. The ice dance couple must be placed either in first or second place at the Swiss Elite Championships 2023.
5) Communication by Swiss Ice Skating	Swiss Ice Skating reserves the right to decide in exceptional cases not covered in this document. This could include injuries, illness of an athlete, etc. Athletes will be informed of their selections no later than December 22, 2022.

* In principle, athletes that compete in Junior and Senior categories during the season 2022/2023 will not be considered for all three ISU Championships. However, depending on the results of the athletes and/or unforeseen circumstances, Swiss Ice Skating reserves the right to reconsider.